ABOUT ALLISON EDEN

Welcome to Allison Eden Studios, where artistry meets tile craftsmanship in the heart of Brooklyn!

At the forefront of our studio is Allison Eden, a visionary glass mosaic artist whose creativity knows no bounds. Since 1993, Allison has been transforming spaces with her stunning mosaic artwork, utilizing glass as her primary medium. What sets Allison Eden products apart from other tile brands is the fact that each design is born from Allison's original artwork, infused with her unique artistic vision and passion for creativity.

With a keen eye for color, texture, and pattern, Allison's designs captivate the senses and breathe life into any space they adorn. While our product offerings have expanded to include stone and other mediums over the years, they remain rooted in Allison's iconic glass mosaic art designs and patterns.

At Allison Eden Studios, we offer a diverse range of custom and ready-to-ship products and artwork, catering to residential, commercial, and hospitality projects alike. Whether you're seeking a bespoke mosaic masterpiece or ready-made tile designs to elevate your space, we have you covered.
